

NKOSINATHI SIKHOSANA

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

I am an ambitious software developer with a diploma in Software Development from Rosebank College. I am proficient in C# ASP.NET and sometimes I work with Java for spring boot or android app development, for my frontend development I mainly use angular but I have started learning React with next.js with tailwind CSS in order to build beautiful & modern user interfaces, I bring a keen eye interface design to every project. Additionally, my love for cloud engineering is evident through my certifications in Azure Fundamentals (AZ-900), AWS Cloud Practitioner, and IBM DevOps in Software Engineering, reflecting my commitment to staying at the forefront of cutting-edge technologies and best practices in the industry.
